

Directional™ Desktop Sit-to-Stand Fact Sheet

Top Features

- Quickly turn any desk or table into a sit-to-stand workstation in minutes without modifying the base or frame
- Allows the user more control over both his environment and posture as he transitions from seating position to standing position throughout the workday

Where It Works

- Directional easily clamps onto any existing worksurface to create sit-to-stand functionality in any work environment

Product Details

- Gas-assist lever-operated height adjustment mechanism is easy to use
- Mounts with a clamp to any worksurface with a depth of 20" - 30"
- Available in three models:
  - HS1100 accommodates a laptop or free-standing monitor
  - HS1101 accommodates a single monitor arm
  - HS1102 accommodates dual monitor arms
- Seamless Black worksurface looks good with any type or color of desk
- Beveled edges create a sleek look and add comfort when typing
- Generous worksurface size for work materials and personal items
- Includes a large primary worksurface and a smaller platform for keyboard and mouse
- Backed by HON's 5 Year Warranty

For more information, please visit hon.com/directional