THE HON COMPANY INTRODUCES 101 SERIES™

NEW LAMINATE DESK AND STORAGE COLLECTION MAKES OFFICE PLANNING EASY

(MUSCATINE, IA – December 21, 2016) – The HON Company, a leading global designer and manufacturer of office furniture, continues to invest in desk and storage solutions to meet the needs of today’s office professional and the changing workplace. HON recently announced its newest laminate desk and storage collection, 101 Series. The new collection was HON’s third desk introduction in 2016, joining Centerpiece™ and Concinnity™, along with Directional™ Desktop Sit-to-Stand, a desk accessory.

“With 101 Series, buyers can access HON-branded products at a great price point, choosing from fully assembled desk, credenza, and return units that simplify the installation process,” said Brian Trego, Vice President, Product Development and Marketing at The HON Company. “The collection has all the components needed to design successful offices – whether it be small businesses, startup companies or professionals setting up home workspaces.”

The collection offers popular preassembled layouts, or buyers can create a layout that is unique to the needs of their office—making 101 Series a quick and easy solution for navigating and planning an office space. 101 Series furthers HON’s commitment to creating products that inspire practicality, emphasize timeless over trendy and help professionals get work done.
